

Bill and Ann Shepherd Legal Scholarship of OGALLA: Oregon's LGTBQ Bar Association

ACADEMIC YEAR 2019-20

The Bill and Ann Shepherd Legal Scholarship, which is administered through OGALLA, Oregon's LGTBQ Bar Association, provides financial assistance to third-year and fourth-year law students who wish to advance equal rights and justice for lesbians, gays, bisexuals and transgender individuals. Those who demonstrate this goal through the selection process and meet the criteria of eligibility will be considered for funding.

HISTORY

Bill and Ann Shepherd began a legacy of justice in action shortly after daughter Susie came out to them in 1972. At that time, Bill Shepherd was in the 34th year of a 56-year career as a respected general practice lawyer, and Ann Shepherd had turned from editing elementary and high school parent-teacher newspapers to fine arts volunteerism with the Portland Opera Guild. Four years later, the Shepherds were deeply committed to fighting for gay and lesbian civil rights. In 1976, Bill founded the Portland Town Council Legal Resource Committee, forerunner of OGALLA. That same year, Ann was appointed to a two-year term on then-Gov. Straub's Task Force on Sexual Preference. In 1977, with Chuck and Rita Knapp, they co-founded Parents of Gays, which later affiliated with the international organization Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays, PFLAG.

Until his death in 1995, Bill Shepherd provided low-cost legal counsel to same-sex couples who wanted to ensure their partners optimal decision-making and inheritance rights. For her part, Ann Shepherd "mothered" countless gays and lesbians rejected by their families and churches, and worked with confused parents to heal the wounds of misinformation and judgmentalism. Ann and Bill fought every anti-gay ballot measure and candidate that crossed their path, and in 1985, the Shepherds received the first of many prestigious awards from the community, the Lucille Hart Award from the Right-to-Privacy PAC.

Despite health setbacks and a stroke on Thanksgiving Day 2000, Ann continued to work assiduously for freedom and justice, and was named The Vollum Humanitarian of the Year by Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon in 2001 – and joyfully served as Grand Marshal of Portland's Gay Pride Parade that year.

The Bill and Ann Shepherd Legal Scholarship was founded by the late Jeff Rose, Mr. Portland Leather 1993, and Susie Shepherd, International Ms Leather 1989. Shepherd Scholars, as befits their namesake, are committed to continue bearing the torch of equal rights.

CRITERIA OF ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible, a candidate must

1. Be committed to equal rights and justice for gays, lesbians, bisexuals and transgender persons;
2. Be a student at an accredited law school;
3. Demonstrate the potential to complete his/her law program successfully; and
4. Demonstrate the intent to practice law and promote the rights of the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender community.

METHOD OF SELECTION

The scholarship committee, which may be composed of past Shepherd Scholars, and/or members or friends of the sexual minorities and legal communities, will review each candidate's application. A personal interview may be arranged for finalists. The recipients of the Bill and Ann Shepherd Legal Scholarship will be chosen upon completion of the application and interview process. Successful candidates will have demonstrated: 1) ability to meet the eligibility guidelines and 2) clarity of educational objectives. Financial need will be considered.

Applications are available from OGALLA and from all Oregon law schools

ONGOING COMMITMENT FOR SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

As you consider whether to apply for the scholarship, please keep in mind that the scholarship committee anticipates that Shepherd scholars will give back to the scholarship program and g/l/b/t community. We expect local scholarship recipients to attend fundraising events and to otherwise support the scholarship committee in its endeavors in whatever form is most appropriate for the individual applicant. For most applicants, this commitment is simply a reflection of the work they are already doing and part of their plans. If, however, you feel this type of commitment is not one you can or wish to make, we ask that you reconsider your application for the scholarship.
